

Network of Educators Supporting Jewish Learners (NESJL)

The Network of Educators Supporting Jewish Learners cordially invites York Region District School Board staff, students and community members to our official network launch.

When

Monday, April 23, 2018
4:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.

Where

Stephen Lewis Secondary School
555 Autumn Hill Boulevard, Vaughan

Keynote Speaker

Bernie Farber

Bernie is a proud fighter for human rights, and one of Canada's leading experts on minority and human rights, race relations and antisemitism. He was appointed by the Attorney-General of Ontario to serve on the Hate Crimes Community Working Group and was awarded an Ontario certificate of merit by the Premier of Ontario for his work in Race Relations. Bernie has led numerous workshops on anti-discrimination issues; has been involved in training police, defence and crown attorneys on matters of hate crime, bias and inter-ethnic/faith sensitivities.

Agenda

4:00 pm to 4:30 pm	Refreshments and registration
4:30 pm to 4:45 pm	YRDSB Director, Louise Sirisko and NESJL Welcome
4:45 pm to 5:15 pm	Bernie Farber
5:15 pm to 6:00 pm	Networking and exhibition from Jewish Archives Being Jewish in Ontario: A Pictorial Celebration

Registration

Please register through the online form

Contact

For more information, please contact:
Corey Margolese at contact@nesjl.ca

Kosher refreshments will be provided